Much has been said and written pro and con as to the colored man's ability as a soldier, but they all seem to forget (except the authorities at Washington that while nothing but praise is due these brave wearers of blue, ye here are some of them who are deserving of special mention. Col. Guy V. Henry of the 7th Calvary in his report of the Sioux Indian Campaign of 1890 91 said: "The colored soldiers fough bravely, and to them much credit is due, as it must be conceded that with-out them the Sioux Campaign would have lasted much longer, and the 7th calvary would have been short of four

It will be remembered that Col. Henry was in command of the gallant oth calvary on their famous marel through the desolate Bad Lands o by a St. Louis newspaper man, said that with the four colored regiments, (the 9th and 10th calvary, and the 24th and 25th infantry) that he could quell any Indian outbreak that would ever occur in this country. This coming from a man so well-known as a military leader and Indian fighter as Color of the first time for three months, for the first composed for the same and the first country. Baptist Church were opened for the first Baptist Church were opened for the first Baptist Church were opened for the first country in the first country country that the four colored regiments, and the first time for three months, for the first time ry leader and Indian fighter as Col Henry, it is something to be proud of

Many of our soldiers now wear med-als of bravery awarded to them by the authorities at Washington for brave and meritorious action during Indian outbreaks, and whole commands have been complimented in general orders from the commanding general of the Army's office at Washington.

As the regulations of the Army nov stands I see no cause why we should not toon have several colored officers in the Army, as a soldier having served two years in the ranks is legible to go before he board to be examined for promotion to a second Lieutenancy. Every year finds one or more white sol-diers ordered before this board for examination, and many of them have passed with the required per cent and now have their commissions.

The Waller Case-Interesting Items.

In the Waller Case, the United States reminds a fellow of the case of Peter with one exception. Peter de-nied his Christ and cursed, but the United States denied Waller and didn't curse. It reminds a fe low of another instance when Peter was called on, or attempted to walk a little piece upon water, and was afraid he would sink, and was rebuked for the little faith he had.

Miss Ida Wells had to leave the country for preaching the doctrine which perhaps must have been that which St. Paul spoke of when he said, "The time would come when people would not hear sound doc-trine." It looks so to a fellow up the tree, doesn't it?

HORRIBLE TORTURE IN TENNESSEE.

The Action of the Mob Worse than the Crime Committed by the Victim.

Horrible Story of Human Depravity.

The Colored Man's Agony

THE ATROCITY UNSURPASSED IN THE CRIMINAL ANNALS OF ANY COUNTRY.

MEMPHIS TENN, October 16 — Jefferson Ellis was hanged to a telegraph pole at 1:30 this morning by 350 men, within 200 yards of the scene of his crime Before hanging the colored man, the mob cut off both his ears and all his fingers and mutitated him in horrible manner The mob with their prisoner reached the home of his vic-tim, Prater, soon after midnight. The young woman identified him as her as-

PREPARED TO ROAST HIM.

As soon as this was done, an armed squad of men took Ellis from Constable Farrow and started with him for the pike, where the public road crosses the Louisville and Nashville. A big fire had been built at the place and around it the mob gathered in a circle. The handcuffed colored man was made to kneel before the fire.

The leaders of the mob told Ellis to pray, but he only looked at them in a stupid manner.

CUT UP GRADUALLY. Being told that he was about to die he raised his voice in a colored people's hymn. By the time he finished, the fiercer element were in complete control of the mob, and cries of "burn him." were heard on all sides. Even his fearful fate would probably have been mercy to the colored man, as sub sequent events proved. Amid the shouts of the mob, a man jumped to the colored man's side with a drawn knife in his hand.

"Cut off his ears," they cried.
"Give me a finger," shouted one

"I want a thumb," another cried. The better element of the crowd drewoff at this time and said they were not in favor of doing anything but nanging the negro.

FIEND'S WORK.

Their protests were out noticed. Being urged on by the flercest in the crowd, the man with the knife cut off the negro's right ear and held up the bleeding trophy in full view of the

The colored man screamed, but his other was cut off a few moments later. The mob became madder at the sight of this work, and those who were mutilating the negro found ample encour-

HIS TERRIBLE AGONY.

They next cut off all his fingers and tearing away parts of his clothing they mutilated him in a horrible manner. The man was covered with blood and his head looked like it had been scalp ed. The mob was not even then willing to end the colored man's agony. They made him stand up so all the crowd could see him

HALF HOUR OF TORTURE.

Finally, fully thirty five minutes after the terture of the colored man be-gan the rope was put around his neck. The telegraph pole was seventy-five feet away. The rope was a very long one, The free end was taken by a man who quickly climbed the pole and threw it over the cross-arm. The crowd jerked the negro to the foot of the pole and while the mob shouted the bleeding and mutilated form of the negro was swung to the cross-arm.

HIS HEAD OUT FROM HIS BODY. The colored man was lowered to the The colored man was lowered to the ground and his head was cut from his body with a pocket knife, the noose was then put over his feet, and the headless body was again swung up. It is intended to send the head to the family of the little girl whom the colored man attempted to assault last Satur day in Mississippi.

A SIGNIFICANT PLACARD. A placard was put on the body bear ing these words: DEATH TO THE MAN WHO CUTS HIM DOWN BEFORE 6:30 THIS EVENING.

No doubt the injunction of the mol will be obeyed to the letter, and the passengers on the Louisville and Nash ville today may see the horrible sight The point where the lynching occur-red is a cross road called Clifton Summit. The mob dispersed after doing its work.

BUCHANAN, VA., Nov. 8, '95. Editor Mitchell,

The dedicatorial exercises of the New River Baptist Church of which Rev. H. Jamison of Buchanan, Va., is pastor took place Sunday morning, 3rd inst, at New River, Va. Rev. Wells of Richmond preached a stirring sermon suitable to the occasion. A large number, both white and colored were number, both white and colored were present. It is only a partial dedication, one in order to keep the people from the cold. We have a heavy debt upon us, that we are compelled to meet by the first Sunday in December. friends to help us, if it be ever so little it will be thankfully received. You will kindly forward what you have to give to Rev. H. Jamison, Buchanan,

To give you a sketch of our pastor's toils: First, he has built eight good churches, baptized 3,754, among the churches, baptized 3,754, among the number four whites. He has labored hard and we have (some of us) taken bread from our children's mouths in order to help complete our church. It is a church that will not only reflect credit to the community, but one that will reflect credit to the Baptist cause throughout the state Rev. H. H. At eleven o'clock, Rev. & W. Raiford, pastor of Mt. Zion Bapt. Church preached from Ruth 1st chapter, 18th verse Rev. Raiford surpassed himself and preached an able and eloquent sermon that very much edified the people.

In the afternoon, Rev. J. W. Thomas, pastor of St. Paul M. E. Church preached from Ruth 1st chapter and preached from Ruth 1st chapter and 16th verse, "Thy people shall be my people, and thy God shall be my God," theme; "The power of a right Godly life upon sinners." The earnest and pleading way in which Rev. Thomas presented the work of the church and the reason of the failure of the church to come up to the high standard of its to come up to the high standard of its calling, melted all hearts. He made a strong appeal to all christians to hold up the standard of Christ by daily

Rev. Randall Kemp preached at night from St. Luke 24th chapter, 46th and 47th verses. The people of Pensa-cols have but to hear a faint whisper that Brother Kemp will preach at such and such a place to night, and the house will not hold the cople, powerful are his words and full of the Holy Ghost. These three divines preached to packed houses, and held their audiences spell-bound.

Young Men's Christian Association.

A most excellent body of young men met in our city on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 1st, 2nd and 3rd. It was the occasion of the 6th State Conference of the colored Young Men's Christian Associations. All the sittings of Friday and Saturday were held at Sharon Baptist Church.

The first session was held at 3 p. m.

held at Sharon Baptist Church.

The first session was held at 3 p m.
Friday, November 1st and was conducted by International Secretary, W.
A Hunton. After a very interesting devotional service, the following committee of management was appointed:
R L. Harris of the Richmond Theological Seminary, L. A Watkins of the V. N. and C. I., and Fred. D. Wheelock of the Hampton Normal Institute C. C. Dogan, General Secretary of the Norfolk Association was chosen Re-Norfolk Association was chosen Re-cording Secretary. After some en-couraging remarks by Revs. Messrs. Philip and Fax of Richmond, the conerence took a recess until the evening

The second sitting convened at 7:30 p. m., Mr R. f. Hill of the Richmond Young Men's Christian Association presided. Quite an eloquent address of welcome was delivered by Mr. T. H. Wyatt, which was briefly responded to by Capt. R. R. Moton of Hampton. Reports from all the associations represented were made, the majority of presented were made, the majority of which showed that good work had been done and some progress made. The large number of converts at Richmond, the comprehensiveness of the Washington work, the healthy and prosperous condition of the Norfolk Association and the success of the Petersburg and Hampton college associations were some of the most en-couraging features of these reports. The session closed promptly at 9:30 o'clock in order that the delegates might attend a reception given by the Ladies' Auxiliary at the rooms of the Young Men's Chris ian Association. After the highly enjoyable repast was finished, spicy and eloquent toasts were delivered by quite a number of prominent Richmond gentlemen and also by a few of the visiting delegates. also by a few of the visiting delegates.

The third session was presided over by Capt. R. R. Moton of Hampton. The most important features were the addresses on "Reason and Suggestions as to Bible Study" and "A Bible Reading" respectively by Prof G. R. Hovey of the Theological Seminary and State Secretary, L. A. Coulter. Mr. W. H. Stokes of Richmond read a soul stirring paper on "Religious Work of stirring paper on "Religious Work of the Association-Methods and Results." All the delegates have agreed that this was the most profitable ses

Mr. J. L. Love of Washington pre sided at the Saturday afternoon sitting sided at the Saturday afternoon sitting.
Mr D G. Jacox of Norfolk read a paper on "Boys' Work," which was full of practical suggestions. The reading was followed by a lengthy discussion as to the importance of the Penny Saving Bank and the military features in connection with the Junior Department. Mr E. S. Pogue of Washington followed with an instructive discourse followed with an instructive discourse on social work, after which Mr C. C. Dogan read a very valuable and practical paper on "The Finances of the Local Associations." Mr. D. Rasbig of South Africa, who is at present a student at Hampton, spoke on college finances, while Mr. W. A Hunton gave one of his characteristic talks upon the importance of supporting the international committee. At sharp 7:30 o'clock Mr. Nelson Williams, Jr., of Richmond, called the evening session to order. The sub-ject of "The Opportunity of the Asso-ciation in Educational Work" was treated by Mr. Fred. D. Wheelock. He aptly referred to the advisability of having trades taught in the local associations. Mr. J. L. Love read a lengthy paper on "Our Young Men," which was considered one of the best Two important papers by Mr D. W. Hill of the V. N. and C. I and Mr. E. S. Pogue, on the S.
